munities characterized by agricultural economics had existed in India since the Vedic times. Gram Samitis are mentioned in the Rig Veda. These village bodies were the lines of contact with higher authorities on matters affecting village welfares, In the course of times these village bodies took the form of panchayats that looked after the affairs of villages. These village panchayats were endowed with judicial and police powers as well. They enjoyed sacred position of authority. Even during the Medieval and Mughal times, panchayats enjoyed privileged position in village affairs.

- (i) What was India committed to since time immemorial ?
