Each one of us must realise that the only future for India and her people is one of tolerance and co-operation which have been the basis of our culture from ages past. We have laid down in our constitution that india is a secular state. This does not mean irreligion. It means equal respect for all faiths and equal oppportunities for those who profess faith. We have, therefore, always to keep in mind this vital aspect of our culture which is also of the highest importance in India Today. Those who put up barrers between one India and another and who promote destructive tendencies do not serve the cause of India or her culture. They weaken us at home and defame us abroad.
